'should have a place on any child's bookshelf' Katherine Forestier, South China Morning Post

Iona and Peter Opie are the authors of many books, including 'The Oxford Dictionary of Nursery Rhymes' and 'The Oxford Book of Narrative Verse'. Peter Opie died in 1982. --This text refers to an out of print or unavailable edition of this title.

The Opies collect folk/play songs from schoolyards. The clapping and jump-rope songs are researched and some go back to the 1700's and are still sung today, although with changes over time. This is a superb collection and, as usual, the Opies have provided us with invaluable insight into every child's garden of verses.

Exactly what I expected.

This book is the original verses that date back to early Victorian time. Excellent for home and school settings for intense study.

This book is a must have for little poetry connoisseurs! There is a great variety of poetry in here from all time periods. If you only own one book of verse for children, make it this one.

Unbeatable---a valued addition to my library.Davd

I great book for refrence infor.

Every child should be so blessed as to read this book or have it read to them. A very lovely collection of poems!

This was a gift, so don't really know the condition it arrived in. I'm sure it was fine.
