We are faithful users of the DK Eyewitness guides...usually I go for their Top 10 guides, but for Chicago I decided to go for the full guide. I'm originally from Chicago, and since I'm already familiar with the city and we were spending a full week there, I wanted to get a little more detail, which I did! As always, the guide gave a great, quick overview of the history of the city but also of different landmarks, etc. Surprisingly, we used the map at the back of the guide most of all this trip (our feet are still recovering!). Totally loved the Chicago (and other DK guides) and would absolutely recommend it!

I LOVE DK Travel Guides. They cover everything you want to see in a new place with narrative including history, price, and location. They include pull out maps and full color pictures. I always buy one when I am going to a new place so I don't waste my time trying to figure out what I should go see. They have helped me plan many enjoyable vacations.

Looking to explore some of my Polish heritage, I thought of Chicago, with more Poles residing than in Warsaw. This "guide" book had one small paragraph about Poles in Chicago, and NO, that's right NO mention of the many Polish restaurants and the heritage areas such as the Polish museum. Do not buy this "guide" if you want a fair representation of the cultures of Chicago. Very disappointed.

Excellent book! Greatly helping us in our planned trip to Chicago. From food, to architecture to sights, and just about everything else.

great book for planning a trip to Chicago!

great book, great service

The maps were particularly useful.

Excellent guide! Well-organized and makes the city geography very comprehensible. Love the maps included.
