Customer Reviews

Pure Complete Fan-fiction. The book almost immediately contradicts this book within a few paragraphs and turns Link into a overly cocky jerk and turns Calamity Ganon into Dark Helmet with more powers. The story then somehow has link regain his memory from just random words that a villager says, then uses a version of Impa from a completely different game, and ends with the most sterotypical phrase possible. The biggest problem i have with the book, however, is the bootleg cover it uses. The author has decided, rather than using all art from Breath of the Wild, the game this book pretends to base itself on, is official art ripped from Nintendo and a picture of a Link Between Worlds model from the back. If you're expecting a novalization of Breath of the Wild, thats not what you're going to get here.

Had the potential to be a cute story but there were several repetitive sentences, a few spelling mistakes, and some inconsistencies in the story. Good try, keep practicing!

this fanfic scares me. why is it for sale.

the book may be short but overall is well written i always welcome new takes on the legend of zelda and unlike some other fanfiction i had just finished reading i was glad to read one with an interesting plot and characters i look forward to seeing where this is heading. since i don't think nintendo will soon or ever release an official legend of zelda book i'm glad to see fans taking the time to create and share their own take on the legend.

A must read for any Zelda lover. This book contains more than just religious elements, it offers readers a chance to explore the deeper meanings behind many of the events and storylines in the Legend of Zelda series. Simply amazing!
