Jessica Courageous Bride (Young Love Historical Romance Book 9)

Synopsis

Jessica Wintersâ™ father is a stubborn and onerous man. In his drive to make his mark he drags his family west, only to be slain on the treacherous trail, leaving his daughters to defend themselves in the open wilds. No horses, no wagon. No hope but in God. When the sheriffâ™s son, Nicolas Holloway, discovers the girls sheltering in a cave it takes a sensitive heart to coax them out. But there is more that Nicholas wants to coax from this gentle and courageous girl â “the answer to a question he will ask only one special woman. Jessicaâ™s adventurous story is just one of the amazing tales of Young Love Historical Romance by #1 bestselling clean Christian romance author, Terri Grace. Each story is a great read in itself, and can be read alone, or as part of this one-of-a-kind series.

Customer Reviews

A father who thinks he's always right a mother who doesn't challenge him with three daughters who follow his demands head west. Of course dad is wrong, Dead wrong. The girls run and hide in a cave and the Marshall and his two sidekicks find them and that's where the love story starts. I enjoyed this quick and easy read.

I loved this story from beginning to end. I couldn't put it down until I finished it. I can't wait to read the next one from this author

I really enjoyed reading this romance book. It was a very good read. I would recommend this book to all my family and friends

Very nice mail order bride, I enjoyed reading it

As with all the Terri Grace books, there is always a lesson and a witness to God's perfect grace. The book is part of a series but reads as a standalone. The story shares God's love without being preachy. The Winters family will find themselves uprooted from their lives in Dover, Delaware, when Grant Winters decides that they need to move westward to Cedar City, Utah. His wife, Helen, and their three daughters, Jessica, Salome, and Ruth are not happy about the plan, but most obey and do as he says. The plot will have the Winters family leaving their home, friends, and boarding a train towards a new town in Utah. Arriving at the end of the train line, they will then take wagons and travel the remaining two hundred miles. But what happens when they learn that the wagon train they are joining left the day before? Grant refuses to wait for a new train, and his impetuous ways will cause harm to animals and part of the family. Newly appointed Sheriff Nicolas Holloway, along with two deputies will go after the Winters family and discover tragedy and they must locate the missing daughters. A daring rescue will lead to new beginnings for the Winters sisters. "The Lord had seen fit to knit her sisters together with a new family. The tapestry of their lives was now intertwined with the Holloway family." Disclosure: I received an e-copy of this book and voluntarily read and reviewed, All thoughts, opinions, and ratings are my own.

A business man was having trouble getting work then decided to uproot his family to head west to start a new business. While on their way he set out to find a wagon Train that had already left, they were ambushed, killed, and the wagons burned. The daughters decided to take a break before the attack, the sheriff went after them, but was too late to save the parents. A must read for those who enjoy historical western romance kindle books from at a special duo of authors who keep me entertained throughout the entire book before putting it down.

Was a great book. How a man decided that his family would move west. They missed the wagon train. The man drives the horses hard. One falls and hurts his leg. He leaves the horse in pain.

Very clean and good read. Why did Martha end up in prison and what will become of her? Well done. I voluntarily reviewed an Advance Reader Copy of this book.
