Towel Wrap Techniques For Handling Cats With Skill And Ease (Low Stress Handling Seminar)

Synopsis

Are you still routinely scruffing cats, stretching them out for jugular venipuncture, and using leather gloves for the ones hissing at the back of the cage? In this instructional DVD, Dr. Yin leads you through seven towel wrapping techniques that will help keep potentially difficult cats calm and relaxed rather than eliciting anxiety and aggression. Each wrap is broken down step-by-step allowing you to practice along, first using stuffed animals and then using cats. By the end of this DVD you'll have the confidence you need to handle difficult cats in a caring, efficient, and safe manner.

Customer Reviews

"I recommend that all businesses that handle animals limit their liability and protect their staff, clients, and themselves by learning from and using the extraordinary principles available in Dr. Yin's Low-Stress Handling video training materials." •James F. Wilson, DVM, JD

Dr. Sophia Yin, a 1993 graduate of the UC Davis School of Veterinary Medicine, is the author of numerous books and DVDs including The Small Animal Veterinary Nerdbook and the Low Stress Handling, Restraint and Behavior Modification of Dogs and Cats. She earned her masters in Animal Science with a behavior emphasis in 2001 from UC Davis. She currently lectures internationally, sees behavior consults and creates educational DVDs and products.

Love Dr Yin. Very gentle techniques. Great demos! Step by step instruction. great way to handle cats with compassion.

I love Dr. Lin and her techniques for handling animals. This is just a great tool for dealing with cats in practice.

Excellent resource for anyone handling cats!

all the techniques was explained clearly.

Great!

I work at a veterinary clinic and this video has helped all our staff handle kitties in a much friendlier and less stressful manner than everyone, especially the owners and kitties!!, seem to really appreciate. I would recommend this to ANYONE that handles animals!!

If you have the book "Low Stress Handling, Restraint, and Behavior Modification of Dogs & Cats" you may not want to spend money on this new DVD. There is not that much new material in this DVD. If you don't have the book, this is a worthwhile investment, and costs far less than the book did. I pre-ordered Dr. Yin's DVD with a feeling of excitement. The description stated that this DVD is for groomers, as well as for veterinarians, owners, shelter managers and so on. Cat groomers face an intense challenge. Each cat grooming session is an opportunity to make a contribution to the health and well-being of an animal. However, cat groomers run the daily risk of a cat bite that could send us to the hospital. Some cat groomers have dropped out of the profession from fear of injury or due to a bad experience. Safe handling techniques are crucial! Dr. Yin is a veterinarian with a Master's in Animal Science. She is breaking ground with her focus on low-stress techniques for both cats and dogs. What I loved about the DVD: Dr. Yin demonstrates each towel technique, then we watch students attempting to wrap the cats. Lastly, we are able to follow along with the DVD as we try to wrap our own cat at home. Her teaching method is clear and thorough. The DVD is well-produced with good audio and visuals. After viewing the DVD, I towel-wrapped one of today's clients, a very large and grumpy cat. Towel-wrapping helped protect me and the cat. It works! Cats are routinely mishandled and then labeled as 'problem' or 'aggressive' cats. Dr. Sophia Yin has worked hard to help change the way professionals interact with cats, and this DVD is another purrlicious resource!! recommend this DVD even if you have the Low Stress Handling book because there are multiple areas modified in order to prevent learner mistakes and the techniques are broken down in far greater detail than on the disk from the Low Stress Handling book. The format is fantastic! The DVD breaks the steps down, then shows common mistakes on a stuffed animal, then shows the wrap on a cat, then shows mistakes people make on cats. The mistakes are highlighted with arrows and lines so they are easy for the learner to pick out. There is also a great section on emergency wrap techniques. Important resource for groomers, shelters, vets/vet techs, behavior consultants, and anyone else that has to handle cats on a regular basis. Well worth the expense!
