365 Thoughts is an exciting perpetual calendar that is certain to impact you and me in a very big way on a daily basis! -- Steve Williford, Williford Communications, publisher of Family Finds and Saltillo Press

Once in a great while, a project comes to me that I feel is very worthwhile and important. 365 Thoughts: A Daily Guide to Uplift and Inspire by Hugh Prather is such a project. Hugh has been touching the hearts of millions of people around the world for the last 35 years, and we are so excited to have his first and only perpetual calendar! You can imagine how honored and fortunate I felt to have had the opportunity to meet and work with Hugh during a weekend workshop. Hugh spoke at my church and the response from the church and the community was phenomenal. It seems that people from all walks of life are so hungry to hear what Hugh has to say. He touched the lives of everyone there and I knew that I wanted more than just a feel-good moment for us with Hugh. I wanted something of lasting value that would continue to touch our hearts and transform our lives long after he was no longer with us. I wanted to create a daily guide in a calendar format so that people would have something they could turn to each day to be encouraged, guided, inspired, and to find joy. So Hugh wrote this calendar to fill that need. And because it is perpetual, you can enjoy its wisdom day after day, year after year. We wanted a calendar that we could use for years, not just a calendar we'd toss at the end of the year. No matter when you get it, you just turn to today and begin. That's what makes this calendar a keepsake. While 365 Thoughts: A Daily Guide to Uplift and Inspire is a collection of some material gleaned from Hugh's other books, it is filled with new material presented for the first time. It is for anyone who wants to grow or heal, one thought at a time. It's that simple. And that profound. If you are familiar with Hugh Prather's hugely successful and inspiring books, then you no doubt share my excitement over this latest offering. If you aren't familiar with Hugh's writing, then you are about to embark on a spiritual journey that will not leave you where it found you. And the calendar is beautiful. Since it's going to be sitting on your desk or counter, we made sure to make it very attractive. It has a full-color cover and two-color interior with photographs that were taken in the Smoky Mountains. It measures 6 inches by 4 1/2 inches with heavy paper and a heavy easel to make it very stable. We want it to hold up year after year. It also comes in a lovely gift box. You know, this is a great time, with the holidays quickly approaching, to buy this calendar. You come in contact every day with family, friends, and coworkers who could deeply benefit from Hugh's writing and who would love to have this calendar. There are very few gifts for this price that are so attractive and enriching.

When you purchase a daily calendar online you don't really know what your getting into. Meaning you can see a little sample of the quotes that are included but those are usually the cream of the crop. The rest of the days may not be as good. For this calendar so far I have to say the quotes and inspirational sayings are right on the money. I do have to warn the agnostics out there that G-d is mentioned in many of the quotes. At first being more of a spiritualist I thought this would be an issue for me. But I have to say the message overpowers any reservations I had.

I bought two of these for upcoming employee retirements. I am having all staff sign on the calendar entry for their birthdays so that their retiring colleagues will remember them and the special times they shared through the years. The calendar content is perfect for what I wanted and, as much so, the page layouts are ideal for folks to sign and write a short comment. I took a chance with what I could see of the calendar on Amazon and am thrilled about the product.

I bought this several years ago, and I continue to change the days with regularity and learn from it. I have a tendency to stop on a page that resonates with me, and I will reread it a few days before going on to the next date. Thought-provoking, spiritual, and enjoyable. I am glad I "happened" on to it, but I am convinced it wasn't by chance. Great gift for yourself or a friend. Hugh Prather is a gifted writer.

As I read these each day (now one month's worth) I am unimpressed. They are statements that I don't feel are inspiring. Someone else may like it but I am ready to put it away as soon as I receive my new calendar.

Mostly quotes referencing God. Which I don't have a problem with its just not what I was looking for. I wanted more of a look into yourself and find inspiration type quotes.

Wanted something that said practical phrases that inspire daily living..A little too much religion...for me needed more life experiences explored...

I have used this calendar every year since I got it. Great daily inspiration!

Did not describe but most quotes are religious-based, and really not very well written or creative at that. Also there's really no space to add notes for special dates.
