Miles And Miles Of Reptiles: All About Reptiles (Cat In The Hat's Learning Library)

Synopsis

Leaping lizards and the Cat and Co. explore the world of reptiles! The Cat in the Hat travels the globe in his trusty crocodile car to explore the world of reptiles: lizards, snakes, turtles, and crocodilians. Along the way, young readers learn the characteristics shared by most reptiles; basic information about each group; quirky, fun facts about individual species; and much, much more. Cool creatures featured include komodo dragons, chameleons, geckos, cobras, leatherback turtles, and frilled-necked lizards—a virtual Who's Who of the World's Most Remarkable Reptiles. Young readers will slither in delight!

Tish Rabe is the author of eleven previous Cat in the Hat Learning Library titles. She lives in Greenwich, Connecticut. Among the many books illustrated by Aristides Ruiz are all the Cat in the Hat Learning Library books. He lives in Newark, New Jersey, and Brooklyn. Joe Mathieu has illustrated countless children's books.

This is a good educational book, even I learned some things from it! This is my 2nd Seuss educational book, and I read it to my daughter before she sleeps. She loves animals (the first one I bought was abt Going to the Safari) so this is a good 2nd book for her.

Part of grandson's birthday gifts. Boys don't let you know if they liked something. especially when they just turn 7 and I could not go to the birthday party.

Our grandson loves the book. I learned several things when he read it to me. Entertaining and informative.

It is definitely one of the best books about fascinating world of reptiles of all sizes, shapes and forms. The book answers most commonly asked questions by kids about reptiles, like "what the difference between a croc and an alligator?" and many more. There is also scientific information that as an adult we never came across, but no worries, adults can memorize it too thanks to the fun easy to recite rhymes. The rhymes make the biology study so fun, you will want to find more books like this one. It is a great gift idea and it is a keeper for your home library. My 4 year old loves it and he will cherish it when he goes to school.

Great grandson is into dinosaurs. He loved this book!

Fun to read. The book rhymes well and is not only entertaining but surprisingly factual. It also has a couple pronunciations in case your unsure. I enjoyed the writing and illustrations and my 2 year old son enjoyed me reading to him and all the pictures. He also loves learning about new animals.

Love reading this to my kids

Purchased for a 2 1/2 year old. They love the illustrations and the rhyme. In addition they have learned a great deal about reptiles and were quite excited to share what they knew when they saw the real animals at the zoo!
