Customer Reviews

The author, a long-time resident of Palm Beach, knows her stuff. Cooper Noble provides lots of good tips on getting quality goods at the best possible, even bargain prices. She is definitely writing from personal experience and in great detail. The author's reference guide, led me to a locked glass case on the second floor of a rickety staircase, at the top of a dark, rather shabby store (in a great restaurant district.) And that is where I found an affordable, beautiful pink quartz necklace, with matching bracelet and earrings. If I hadn't read this book, all I would have seen was the Starbucks on the ground floor and passed right on by. The facade was not fashionable or impressive. The entrance wasn't obvious. This is the sort of book that will help you explore previously unknown shopping spots and discover your own treasures, at reasonable prices. Worth the cost of the book.

For any shopper who loves exquisite clothing and accessories, Bargain Shopping is the premier guide to find anything from clothing, antiques, jewelry, purses, and more. It is crisply written with precise detail and includes directions to over 150 top consignment and thrift shops in Palm Beach, Broward, and Miami....a marvelous compendium of upscale shops. A cogent read for all.

I don't agree with all her evaluations but it's an excellent place to start and some are my new favorite thrift stops - which I wouldn't have found without this book. Note: The Sugar Chest antique mall in Pompano Beach closed in January 2017 - it's listed in the book but must've closed after the book was published.

Author missed some thrift stores!

Love it! Thank you so much for sharing your secret!

I can't imagine why this has 5 stars- I could have gotten the same information from yelp reviews. The information lacks a rating system- this would help in categorizing the different stores and showing which are worth checking out. There's nothing showing costs or anything of the sort. The text seems like it's someone's notebook published into a book. I would have appreciated more information per store- its super short. I can't believe I wasted $10 on this.
