some archery pointers and at the same time, a few lessons on the spirit of God! The book deals with a lot of technical issue of repeated performance with the bow and arrow. The only thing that I would have liked to see, is more information on tree stand hunting. You just don't always have the luxury of having good foot placement 20 feet high on a 12" x 18" platform when a deer pops into your window. I liked how he tied the spiritual aspect of good shooting and being relaxed.Just started Sean C. McVeigh's other book on "Becoming a World-Class Hunter". I would recommend both of these books for the archer who wants to improve their archery skills and enjoy what God has given to us.

I have been an avid archer since a boy. I have also been walking with Christ for some time. Sean's insights inspired me in both areas as well as a renewed spirit to use and develop my God given talents to praise Him. Thanks Sean

Good insturctional book about archery, enjoyed his stories. The author Sean McVeigh not only helped me as a beginner through his book but he also shares tips on youtube. Its a good book check it out.

Absolutely amazing! Many excellent tips on archery shared from his own experiences. A "must have" for the beginner. a "should have" for the experienced, and a "wish I'd had it" for those who are the accomplished, but could have arrived much sooner!

The writer is thorough on the subject of archery, candid on his faith and the writing is accessible. I've learned a ton through this book and his YouTube channel. I'm half-way through the book right now

Another great book by Sean McVeigh. I enjoyed it. As an old dude taking up bow hunting, I learned a lot from this book. Thanks Sean.Mark E
