Customer Reviews

I loved the first book but was left lacking on last two. Book two had all this mythical stuff in it that bored me and really lost me, secret societies and stuff and I never really enjoyed the series after that. I would have quit reading it but I hoped it would get better it was creepy but it reminded me of the movie eyes wide shut with tom cruise....I give blake credit for finally admitting to loving lana and eventually wanting to marry her...but he was abusive to her...I know she was selling herself to help her mother but I think he should have another way for her to pay him other than with her body...for me it was hard to read being a victim of domestic violence...and abuse...but lana saw it being in love with him that he could do no wrong...I read the books because I brought it but it wasn't the book for me. its really weird to even think that things of that sort actually happens in real life....

Wasn't. My favorite. I got it free and thought it would have been better doesn't end good leaves lots unanswered kind of a let fown

The first two books were more interesting. There was more of a storyline. I liked the characters. I wished that the character Billie was more developed in the story. I also would have liked to know what happened to Jack. Both of these characters just sort of disappeared.

This series was spectacular. I love coming across a book that is unique, that strays from the typical romance novel formula. This one does so beautifully. Lots of steamy romance and sex, but a truly compelling plot that is absolutely different from anything I've ever read. The basis of the story at first seems far fetched, but as you read along the author makes you question basic concepts of international politics and the world economy (I know, it doesn't sound hot -- but trust me, it is!!) that really make you question certain assumptions and think to yourself, "Hmmm...maybe...". Along the way is a hot romance and lots of lovely tension between the main characters, and a nasty villain or two...or three, for good measure. Loveloveloved it.

I loved this series. These books were be on hot... Masquerade is a stand alone book in the Billionaire Banker series. Oh my! Hot is not the word that comes to mind when it comes to Blake or Vann or Jaron. Maybe "unforgettable" or "unbelievable" or "devastatingly smoking", catch your panty hose of fire " Hot " would be the words to describe these men. And the story lines are a can't put the books down until the sun is coming up kind of reads.Now I know I'm not one of those ladies who can review books with elegance and polish so please forgive me. I just had to tell you I plum loved these books...

just a weird story and even after all 3 books, there are things not answered---plus last book has a lot of typos

Thought novel was a bit too long. Too many tangents and off-shoots. Good read though but some
