This book was so awesome!! Uri and Val journeyed out of the darkness and traveled straight into love, even though they fought hard to not to go their. Their chemistry, passion, love, and connection was too strong to ignore, and it was set in motion a long time ago. I got a tickle out of the both sets of uncles playing matchmaker, but they did well. No matter what road life takes you down, this book showed that love is for everyone. I love the banter between Uri and Val from the beginning and to learn their past were so similar were eerie. I'm glad that found their way and learned how to love each other. I love seeing how other characters from different books integrate with each other and makes the story line flow even better. I can't wait to read Hush 2: Slow Burn. Blue Saffire keeps knocking me off my feet with her wonderful written works. Keep it up Mrs. Saffire. You really know how to keep my attention and truly develop your characters and story lines. Please continue to use your God-given talents to bless us with your books.

Uri and Val's story overall was entertaining but my annoyance is the bad editing which results in an rocky read. Val's behavior at times was just irritating- I thought the author did a mediocre job on her character since there was no real balance between her being a deadly assassin and the damaged young women. The other annoyance is when secondary characters get introduced and their story becomes so prominent you become engaged then the author switches back to the primary characters - I guess it's the hook used to get you interested so you can buy the next installment.

Okay, you have now pushed all my top 5 authors out the way. I mean oh my gosh, I really want to say Da?n. Now I have to buy all the series, a friend recommended Hush to me, I bought it in June. Tragedy happen that month and I didn't read it til Aug 30. Just finished it Valentina I really like her, that's one bad sister. And Uri her man oh, wow, I would love all that he dished out to her. But as I read I realize Pamela and Nathan probably had a story of there own out. That's when I really looked and saw the order, so I guess I know what I will get for my birthday which is in the next 2 months. The whole series, but Hush had me horney like no tomorrow, fabulous read going for Hush 2 now.Ztoria

Wow. Loved Uri & Valentina story. Two dark souls made human by the love and trust that developed between them. Like the history the author included so the reader could understand why they were so deadly. The way all the characters are intertwined make each story runs smoother. The cliffhanger makes one wonder what other surprises are in store. I will continue to read the series. Thanks Blue for making these characters human and loveable.

Every book is better than the last, thank you for keeping me supplied , with a continuing series, this book was out of this world great, I just finished Hush book one now it is on to Hush book two. While reading Hush I also bought and have read book 2 Noah in the brothers Black series and Ballers book 2 please keep them coming.

I love Uri and Tina. The chemistry between them is off the chain. To think they were intertwined with each other as kids. Love it.

This book was very good. I enjoyed all of the Legally Bound books and this book was as good or even better. Uri and Valentina had great chemistry. You just know he will handle everything that comes their way. They both understand each other as they have similar history. Valentina reminded me a bit of Carter in the Michelle Hardin book Dangerous Beauty. I look forward to reading more of the series. Some grammar issues but not enough to distract from the story. The only thing I would change would be the book cover. Uri as described (lightly bearded and hot) is better looking than the guy on the cover.

Uri is now officially one of my book boyfriends. I love his whole alpha male. I also love Valentina. I was so happy they both got together. Perfect soul mates that actually met when they were children. Love all the action and the plot twists especially who the mastermind was behind Val' mother and sister. I can't wait for the next book in the series. Definitely a must read and you should read the Legally Bound series first since it is all intertwined. Thanks author Blue Saffire you are now in my list of authors I automatically one-click when they drop a new book.
