Synopsis

A richly illustrated history of the surfboard from the first hand-crafted "wave-riding" redwood planks to the "plastic fantastic" technological marvels of today

Customer Reviews

Surfer's Journal, September 2007 "The Surfboard serves as a general catalog and survey of surf craft from the 20th century onwards." Transworld Surf, September 2007

Even in the beginning, the surfboard was a religious icon. The ancient Hawaiians rode their koa boards in homage to the sea's gods. And today, surfing is a philosophy and a way of life rolled into one. Here is the first ever history of the surfboard! From the Hawaiians' monstrous koa planks to the latest and greatest plastic fantastic masterpieces, the surfboard's tale is told in glorious photography and stoked text.
