Alfred J. Church (1829-1912) wrote a number of stories in English re-telling of classical tales and legends for young people (Stories from Virgil, Stories from Homer, etc.). He also wrote much Latin and English verse, and in 1908 published his Memories of Men and Books. --This text refers to an alternate Paperback edition.

This has been an excellent read for my 12 year old - I have read it too, and it follows the real Aeneid so well, has similar Homeric style - long similes, and such, but well-suited to younger age groups, maybe 4th-8th grade. It is a great book to read before actually delving into the real Aeneid, which my son will do in high school. Very satisfied!

My 10 year old loves all of Alfred Church's books.

My 8 and 6 year olds love it; he didn't care for the true poetic version.

My 11 year old had no trouble reading this for school. It is a pretty long version and we splitt it up over 4 weeks.

Shipped quickly, as described.

I just wanted to know the story and this book fills that need. I found it a little slow going at times. Would recommend it to parents who want their children to know about these legends

A high-quality initiation into the work of Virgil.

We enjoyed reading this book every night! The highlight of our day!
