The Green Coat (This Is What Love Looks Like . . . Book 1)

Synopsis

The Green Coat is book 1 in a series of children's books explaining the love of God. In this first book author Debra L. Stokes demonstrates God's love for a lost soul through sacrificial giving. When Miss Betty notices a young woman at the train station in need she offers her the warmth of God's love through the giving of her new green coat.

Customer Reviews

This is a book that "grows" with a child. Even the youngest children can enjoy the story's theme of love ... it is universally understood. The book takes on deeper meaning as a child matures. What's great about the book is that a child's library won't need to abandon this one... it's a keeper.

It shows what love really means it means to love one another. Show your love to one another. Good love blooms blooms.

Very sweet story! Easy to read and great way to explain to children what God's love looks like and how you can spread that love with simple acts of kindness. I loved it!!

Sweet story for children and grandchildren about God's love and helping others--written by a special woman who is a shining example of the love God has for all of us.

Very good illustration God's love for us and God's love for others shown through us. Love it! My kids will enjoy this

I think it is a great book and the illustrations are wonderful.

People forget sometimes the simple things make this biggest difference in someone's life; that's what this book shows. Another great example of God's love shown through acts of kindness.

This books speaks of God's love...How He meets us at the point of our needs...teaches us to have compassion for others who we see are in need...spreading His Love to one another...
