I can't say enough about Gabaldon or about Davina Porter. While I use Audible, I have a friend who is not tech savvy, but she's a audiobook fanatic. So this was a perfect gift. I'm on a mission to convert everyone into Outlander fans and this is part of my plot. I've gone through the whole audio series twice. Porter does have a couple of annoying voices, but I have never heard anyone do better. Somehow, I hear Sam Heughan and Catriona Balfe's voices when she reads. Ok, every British soldier or aristocrat sounds the same and Brianna can't sound less American. But she does a phenomenal job and some of you know how many characters are packed in this 8 book series. Any more questions? Just buy it!

I love all things Outlander. I love listening to the book being read especially when I am on a driving trip. It is such a wonderful story. I recommend the audio books and anything written by Diana Gabaldon.

All that I expected also many disks. It was nice listening to the words. Want more audiobooks.

I loved Outlander and I plan to listen to the whole series. My only issue was one of the CD's has a glob of red sticky stuff on the back making it impossible to listen to the CD.

Yes, it's great. I do think it is quite expensive!
