This is a beautiful telling of the story of the birth of Christ. It is such a wonderful book, I buy it to give as a gift whenever I can find a copy. No doubt the author was inspired as he wrote the book. Probably my favorite book of all time.

Reading this wonderful book is a Christmas tradition for me. Richard Exley really brings the characters to life and provides a true sense of who they were and what they were feeling. The illustrations are beautiful and enhances the text in a very meaningful way. I look forward to reading this book every December!
