Escape Essay Hell!: A Step-by-Step Guide To Writing Narrative College Application Essays

Synopsis

Escape Essay Hell! is a fast-and-easy guide to writing narrative-style essays for college application essays. Janine Robinson, a former journalist, magazine editor and English teacher who has tutored college-bound students on these essays for the last decade, acts as a personal writing coach to guide and cheer students through this dreaded process. College admissions experts advise students to "Tell a story" or "Make the essay about you!" or "Stand out!" And this is all correct. But no one ever explains exactly HOW to do this. Until now. In her short-and-easy guide, Janine takes students through 10 simple steps to find engaging topics and then craft compelling "slice-of-life" essays using storytelling writing techniques. Students will learn how to identify their unique defining qualities, power their essays with engaging real-life stories called anecdotes, and use an effective Show and Tell writing formula. Escape Essay Hell! helps students write personal statements for The Common Application, state universities (University of California, University of Texas, etc), private colleges (from Harvard and Yale to smaller liberal arts schools, such as Brown, Wellesley, Rice, Pomona, etc.), graduate school, transfer and scholarship essays. By following these simple steps, students will escape Essay Hell in no time at all---and have their best shot at landing in their dream school (often despite less-than-stellar grades and test scores)! Janine Robinson also works privately and in groups with students from all over the world using Skype. Learn more about her tutoring and editing services at EssayHell.com.

This book provides an easy step-by-step process for writing the type of college essay universities admissions departments are looking for. My now-in-college daughter used it, and we just purchased a second copy for my soon-to-be writing college applications daughter. The book provides good examples and makes the process as pain-free as possible. We'll be passing it on to others after my daughter is done.

This is a great book for those that have trouble getting started writing that dreaded college essay especially if your not an avid writer. The step by step method helps get the layout and outline started. It's also good to get a feel for what the essay readers are looking for. Thanks for the little push that was needed to get the ball rolling.

I just purchased this book for my son to use. I read it today and love it. It is clear and engaging. I particularly like the way Ms. Robinson bolded the important parts--my son is much more likely to use it knowing he can just read the bolded than if he is faced with a long book to read. I love that she includes humor and plenty of examples.

This is a great tool for crafting a good personal essay. My child found it easy to understand and use.

Wow. Why is this book not used more often? It's simple and light to read, but actually gives concrete steps to follow in writing a college admission essay. My friend and I used this book and both got into universities with 4% acceptance rates; and we certainly didn't get in due to our marks. This book is amazing.

I found the tips in "Heavenly Essays" very useful for me and in some cases, the book lacks the more detailed examples of using your advice. With the help of this book, I wrote a great essay for my colleges.

This is the best of the books on this topic I've read. It provides a great template with each of the 10 steps separately described and detailed, all in a short concise guide. This is an essential guide for those preparing college application essays.

An invaluable resource for any college applicant. Great insights shared in a concise, well written book. Even parents and teachers can benefit from this book, as they guide the students on their journey through essay writing.
