Ann Martin has been quilling since 2002 when she was instantly captivated by a magazine article about the beautiful art of paper rolling. Her work and tutorials have appeared on television, in books, including her own All Things Paper and Creative Paper Quilling, as well as in craft, card making, and handmade jewelry magazines. Ann's popular blog, AllThingsPaper.net features her designs and the work of other remarkable paper artists from around the world.

The projects in this book are made with metallic paper which is easy to work with but ends up looking like metal-which is perfect for making the detailed and elegant jewelry projects stepped out in this book. They are all different styles from modern to classical. Some are made of lots of tiny and tight pieces while others are open and airy and some combine both. The beginning of the book contains lots of great basics and tips so that even if you have never quilled you will be good to go. These individual elements can be used for all sorts of projects you design yourself.
