An affinity for wedding planning and decoration literally runs in Carina von B low and Am lie Cremer's blood; they were involved in the decorating business owned by their mother, Sabine von B low, as soon as they could walk. After studying fashion design, getting additional graphic design training, working as stylists, and starting their own small fashion label, the authors now develop enchanting personalized wedding concepts.

Cute book with lots of inspiration. It's a great coffee table book for my office.
