It's spring cleaning time and Brother, Sister, and Honey Bear need to clean their playhouse. They are quickly distracted so Papa Bear steps in to teach them what the Bible has to say about finishing the job and doing their best.

Stan and Jan Berenstain introduced the first Berenstain Bear books in 1962. Mike Berenstain grew up watching his parents work together to write about and draw these lovable bears. Eventually he started drawing and writing about them too. Though Stan died in 2005, and Jan in 2012, Mike continues to create the delightful Bear adventures from his studio in Pennsylvania, in an area that looks much like the sunny dirt road deep in Bear Country.

My daughter loves this book! I like the fact it has Bible references in it. It is a very nice series for Christian families.

This book is entertaining. Having purchased the Bernstein Bears books for my children in the past, I knew they would be a great read for my grandchildren ... and that stood true. They also meet reading requirements for younger readers. I definitely recommend this for younger readers.

Good

I read to my granddaughter from my phone when we are talking to each other on Facetime. It gives me an opportunity to share books with her even though I am not physically. Since its on a phone, the picture appear to be before the actual text. So sometimes I have to go back to share the picture with my granddaughter. As for the story, it had a nice little lesson about "a job well done." It held my granddaughter's attention. When we are reading again, I will know how good it was when she asks for it to be read again.

Favorite books

All the Berenstain Bears books are terrific. Great lessons learned for children and parents can refer back to the stories and the kids just 'get it'!

I like the book. I love the books so much. I would recommend to people and to friend and family. I would get more.

I was very disappointed in this story. Seriously, you have to prepare your fields before you build your house as a work ethic? How does this teach brother and sister bear to clean a playhouse full of spiders that they are scared of? There are so many other Bible verses that are more applicable to build work ethics. Whatever your hand finds to do, etc!
