Texas V. Johnson: Case Brief (Court Case Briefs)

Synopsis

Do you have to review a court case and read tens if not hundreds of pages for lecture material to make a measly one page case brief? Let us help you! Save yourself hours of wasted precious time, and check out this case brief, submitted by undergraduate student Jeanna Banka. In each brief Banka offers a brief summer of the background, constitutionality, decision, lasting effect, and court in which each case occurred in; all in just one page! So all those cases you need to know point by point, just got a little shorter! Check out this case brief if you need details on the case Texas v. Johnson!*Note: The works submitted to Writer's Block Publishing were written for the sole purpose of providing students with critical thinking, and give such students ideas of what to write about. Customer Reviews

A quick Google of the case name returned the #1 search hit of "Facts and Case Summary - Texas v. Johnson" at the official uscourts site, a dot gov site. The summary there, believe it not, is far more interesting and detailed: "Gregory Lee Johnson burned an American flag outside of the convention center where the 1984 Republican National Convention was being held in Dallas, Texas. Johnson burned the flag to protest the policies of President Ronald Reagan. He was arrested and charged with violating a Texas statute that prevented the desecration of a venerated object, including the American flag, if such action were likely to incite anger in others. A Texas court tried and convicted Johnson. He appealed, arguing that his actions were "symbolic speech" protected by the First Amendment. The Supreme Court agreed to hear his case." Since this one page "book" was free, I don't have to return it for a refund.
