Customer Reviews

Book by Paul Murphy, Peter Schweighofer

The Alliance Sourcebook is a detailed treatment of Rebel forces, equipment, vehicles and personnel. It's a great companion to the Imperial Sourcebook. Even for as old as it is, my copy was practically new and looks great next to my other WEG Star Wars books.

Mon Mothma asked for a full report on Rebel Forces... well she got more than what she asked for. Now Rebel Alliance is gettin crowded with a new alien race: Earthlings!!! This book is perfect for both the GM and the player, it contains history, short stories illustrating each chapter, new rebel ships, npcs, equipments, politic and military organizations, operational standards... You will just feel like a Tatooine farm boy when he first meets the Rebellion, in complete awe by its size, organization, people and ideals... May the Force be with you... Always

If you like the old d6 Star Wars RPG from West End Games and the classic trilogy of movies, this book is a must buy! Here you can find all sorts of information about the Rebel Alliance and it's enough to run rebel based games for a long time.

There was some good information in it, but it was hidden by too much tiresome, useless information. The book was a slow-progressing one. The book was no fun. It was all work and no play. There were no color pictures, no jokes, none of the flare that the Star Wars Roleplaying Book had. It was bland.

The Rebel Alliance Sourcebook gave me a whole lot of information on the Rebel Alliance, which has proven very useful in my gaming experience.

I found it very useful, specifically all the info on Intelligence and Special Forces.
