The bizarre creatures lurking in these pages include a spider that does flips to escape predators, a cannibalistic snail that eats other snails, a fish that experiences live birth, a reptile with two heads (one real, one fake), a bird that smells like cow manure, and a frog that can go ten years without eating -- to name just a few. The photographs are gorgeous. Every bulging eye, every hairy or slimy tentacle, every oddly formed snout, every scaly or prickly body, is beautifully reproduced. The writing is as lively and engaging as the photography. This makes a great gift for a kid interested in weird creatures. A substantial book, it can be read through, or enjoyed by skipping around. The text is delivered in easy to follow caption-like paragraphs attached to the images.

My kids love looking through at all the silly animals. It's fun for us all to check out

6 year old loved it. He loves the zoo and his dad reads this with him.

This is for my grandson and what 7 yr old boy is not into gross. I'm finding it fascinating myself

A gift for my niece for Christmas and she loved it. She sat for hours reading and looking at the pictures. Every now and then I would hear "wow" and "omg." I was happy because she was so excited and really entertained by the book. I would highly recommend this book to anyone.

I have boys and they love this kind of stuff! This is a neat "gross" book.

Cool book

My grandson loves this book and finds the text and the illustrations informative and sometimes gross! It has a wealth of facts for the young and those of us who are not so young!
