Olympic National Park (National Geographic Trails Illustrated Map)

Synopsis

Waterproof Tear-Resistant Topographic Map Olympic National Park encompasses four distinctly different ecosystems in its nearly one million acres. National Geographic's Trails Illustrated map of Olympic National Park offers outdoors enthusiasts a valuable tool for exploring the park's old-growth forests, glaciers, untamed rivers, and rugged coastline. Expertly researched and created in partnership with local land management agencies, this map features key areas of interest including Mount Olympus, Ozette Lake, Olympic National Forest, Lake Quinalt, Mount Skokomish Wilderness, Hurricane Ridge, Lake Crescent, and more. With miles of mapped trails including a portion of the Pacific Northwest Trail, this map can guide you off the beaten path and back again in some of the most breathtaking scenery in the region. Designed with a wide range of visitors in mind, this map features detailed and easy to read trails, accurate road network, points of interest, lodging, waterfalls, fishing and boat access, and ranger stations. The map base includes contour lines and elevations for summits, passes and many lakes. A variety of helpful information about regulations, safety tips, and a list of wilderness campsites are included as well. Every Trails Illustrated map is printed on "Backcountry Tough" waterproof, tear-resistant paper. A full UTM grid is printed on the map to aid with GPS navigation. Other features found on this map include: Blue Mountain, Buckhorn Wilderness, Clearwater River, Colonel Bob Wilderness, Elwha River, Hoh River, Lake Crescent, Lake Quinalt, Mount Anderson, Mount Carrie, Mount Constance, Mount Deception, Mount Olympus, Mount Pleasant, Mount Skokomish, Mount Skokomish Wilderness, Olympic, Olympic Mountains, Olympic National Forest, Ozette Lake, Port Angeles, Queets River, Sol Duc River, Sooes Peak, Teahwhit Head. Founded in 1915 as the Cartographic Group, the first division of National Geographic, National Geographic Maps has been responsible for illustrating the world around us through the art and science of mapmaking. Today, National Geographic Maps continues this mission by creating the world's best wall maps, recreation maps, atlases, and globes which inspire people to care about and explore their world.

Great for showing the trails. The entire park is on both sides, part on one and the rest on the other, although I would have preferred it all on one side. In that fashion, it would better help me figure out where to stay and what to see. But if you are mainly interested in using it for hiking, then the way it comes is better, as there is more room for details. I found the pdf download map of the on the NPS site extremely poor in comparison. This one is way way better and worth the money.

I really love nat geo's trail maps, this things can hold up really well. I had a stack of them out on this last trip through the southwest. Its not mine if I haven't spilled coffee on it yet apparently well knocked a cup over right on the maps at first I freaked out but after a quick trying and leaving in the sun the maps weren't even phased. As for the map itself, I carry them on all my hikes and haven't been disappointed when i have to use them on the trails. Another thing I use them for is planning my photography shots, it gives me a bigger picture of everything so I know what the terrain looks like, what direction each "viewpoint" is before I ever get to the parks

These maps always rock. Tear resistant and water proof with great detail on trails and roads. I do wish this particular map covered a bit more of the peripheral area of the park. We need another map to get around well.

Love NGM maps as they are so detailed and helpful for hiking, etc. Purchase them for all the planned vacations as they are full of information and correspond nicely with hiking books and hiking programs like All Trails.

Similar to the free map you get at a Ranger Station or WIC, but with more details, contour lines, elevations, trail mileage, and more. Good quality paper stock that can stand up to the rigors of backpacking and resist water and humidity.

We will use this map in August, when we visit Olympic Natl. Park to plan hikes.

These are simply invaluable when backpacking and planning your trip.

This map shows you everything you need to see to visit this park.
