Customer Reviews

This is a wonderful travel book for learning about Yosemite National Park and what it has to offer to the non-hiker and the beginner hiker. Julie Cleveland, the author, has a comfortable tone and a nice conversational style of writing, and so this is a great book for relaxing and absorbing the information that she provides. I particularly like that she included a short section on Mono Lake, which is one of my favorite places. I also like that she illustrates the text with her own photographs. In short, this is a fun and interesting ebook, and well worth the price!
