This is an appallingly-written book. It reads like it was translated from another language into English by a computer. Did anyone actually proof-read this thing? Example: "The Zombies are at least three times more than the Players and the Villagers, although, the second ones are having better weapons and a good tactic." This is rampant throughout the book. The story is non-existent, and the characters are completely uninteresting. I'm struggling with the words to describe fully just how miserable a read this is. I would also add that calling this a boxset is beyond misleading. It's an out-an-out lie. This is ONE BOOK containing all six "books". My son is a huge fan of the Diary of a Minecraft Zombie books, and we had hoped that this would be of similar quality. Needless to say, it is not.

Really poor language, a lot of mistakes, the story sucks and is not coherent. It is not worth buying it.

i agree. i mean, i like the story line and overall its pretty good, BUT, i does have bad grammer and spelling mistakes, and im a really good reader so everytime it does a mistake, im all over it like flies to a rotten apple. so PLEASE fix those cause it gets annoying every time theres a misake im like: What the does it mean here...? PLEASE im begging you!

i love this book i love all the 6 book's they are really awesome beacause it is awesome when he just appears in a bed in a house and it is actually really confusing when he just shows up in a bed in a house to. How did he just appears in the first place
