Alan Tomkins's film career spanned more than 40 years, in which time he went from being a draughtsman on Lawrence of Arabia to becoming an acclaimed and sought-after art director on films such as Saving Private Ryan, The Empire Strikes Back, JFK, Casino Royale, and Batman Begins. Oliver Stone is an American film director, screenwriter, and producer. He has won three Academy Awards for his work on Born on the Fourth of July, Midnight Express, and Platoon.

Just received this today n while I haven't read much, I quickly breezed through the lovely photographs. What I wasn't aware of was Mr. Tomkin's talents n extensive film work. To be honest, based on the cover graphics, I expected this to be a "Star Wars book"...which it's not. Obviously that was to grab your eye, n possibly increase sales. For those of you thinking this IS a behind the scenes SW book you may be disappointed. If like me, you're a film lover aside from being a SW fan, I'm sure you'll enjoy this book.

There's a ton of cool photos from a lot of the movies I grew up with and a ton of cool stories

Disappointing. Obviously marketed as a Star Wars insider book. Only 6 pages about Alan's work behind the scenes on TESB.
