Customer Reviews

After a couple attempts at skiing my friends are now trying to get me into snowboarding. So being a total snowboarding newbie I found this little guide full of just what a beginner would want to know. The hardest part for me to figure out is what board to get. There is a great chart on Beginner Boards that lays it all out. Understanding this will save me time (and newbie embarrassment) when I go to buy, or in my case probably rent a board. Although clothing works much like for skiing, he lays that out in an easy to understand manner too. More good info listed is how to care for your board and your clothes to keep them in top (and safe) condition. The section on doing your first ride was helpful as well. As with any new endeavor there are a lot of terms to learn that can sometimes be a bit overwhelming, so I especially enjoyed the chapter on Snowboarding Lingo. :) I never heard the term goofy-foot (ok that one did give me a giggle). This is a wonderful little guide for beginning snowboarders or those considering snowboarding.
