Charleston, South Carolina And The Lowcountry: A Photographic Portrait

Synopsis

This full-color photographic portrait paints a picture of one of America's most genteel cities, Charleston. Steeped in history, bathed in southern Atlantic breezes, and touched with a unique blend of Southern culture and hospitality, these photos reveal the life of a quintessentially southern American city.

If you hail from the Low Country of South Carolina, or just appreciate the magnificent architectural history of this pre-Civil War city, this coffee table book will bring hours of visual delight and warm conversation to your family and guests.

Charleston, South Carolina is a great place to visit and has a ton of history. This book was a nice one to add to collection!

A very nice book. I am taking my wife there in May and wrapped the tickets in the book. I feel like I know the place already. Great buy.

Historic Charleston is a place everyone should visit. We've been there several times and this book depicts the majesty of Charleston. I was so pleased with this book, I ordered a copy for my best friend and included it in her 'trip kit' for Christmas. Order your copy and plan to visit Charleston. Savannah isn't far away, so why not see both places. Another tip....the BEST LITTLE MAPS from Navigator Maps are purrrfect; they are very inexpensive and soooo helpful. Have a great trip!

This is a very good book to show Charleston. We had a business meeting with members from all over the world and we gave each of them a copy of this book. They really liked it. It has great pictures of the area. I usually like to have a little bit more of the history shared in a book. This one does share a little but there are others out there that share more of the history of Charleston also in pictures. But this is a great book of present day Charleston and pictures to share.

Slightly disappointed with the descriptions and areas which were chosen to photograph. I will be more discerning in the future.
