Schlock Treatment

Synopsis

TO AVOID FAINTING, KEEP REPEATING, IT'S ONLY A MOVIE. ONLY A MOVIE. Ask anyone who's been to their local multiplex anytime recently and they'll tell you that mediocrity is the order of the day: it's all sequels, reboots and superhero movies. If you want a truly memorable viewing experience, you're better off searching for the kind of sleazy, cheesy, occasionally reprehensible films your local plex would pay NOT to show. From BLOOD FEAST to VAMPIRE GIRL VS FRANKENSTEIN GIRL, SCHLOCK TREATMENT will introduce you to over 100 below-the-radar alternatives. Get ready for action, excitement and bizarre fashion choices as the authors select films to savour in every subgenre from Nazisploitation to Mexican wrestling movies, stopping along the way to remember the filmmaker who changed his name to "Jesus Christ II" and the porn film that was redubbed as a comedy when the director lost the soundtrack.

And that's all that needs saying. Except for the fact that Mr. Bradley has done the job well. Glad I didn't have to sit through ALL these films.
