Not very useful for students interested in improving their essays. Clearly seems to have been written before they understood changes made by the College Board

Good review book, but some facts about the AP itself aren't correct! I prefer the Princeton Review book

My daughter said it was not well-written. The practice tests do not link with the preceding chapter material properly. She would know as she is an avid reader and an A student.

Not a bad book, but the 2016 release didn't really help students prep for the AP exam. Hoping the 2017 release is more useful for writing skills.

Really helps you prepare for the exam.

Student passed AP exam. Happy with purchase

This book was not updated with the 2017 revision. The multiple choice are good, but the essay rubrics are not updated and completely wrong. I would not recommend it to my students.

My 15-year-old son used this book as throughout his AP World course and plans to use it to prepare for the exam.
