Out At The Inn

Synopsis

Among the majestic shoreline of the Central Coast of California lies a secret. Leah Van Heusen finds a hidden staircase. The ancient house she finds among the overgrown foliage is amazing and eerie, most wouldn't even step a foot closer but she is intrigued and feels drawn to the old mansion. Leah finds more than she bargains for after seeking out the owner and purchasing the entire estate for a dollar. As she starts to restore it, she finds out who her real friends are, she also finds out who her family really is. What's a few ghosts between friends? Between repairs, upgrades, and finding out the houses secrets, Leah has her hands full. Finding out her sexuality and dating is the least of her worries. As her beloved dream of an Inn becomes reality she finds it suddenly in jeopardy, who will kill for it or the immense fortune that she has found?

Customer Reviews

I like that a bit of supernatural was thrown into the mix with this wonderful book, in such a way as to be totally believable and to be woven into the story as to greatly enhance it. I've read all of K'Anne's other books, and this one while having romance and drama also added a bit of whimsy, making it the most delightful yet, making it tied with The Journey Home for me.

This was spellbinding! Love old houses,so this was right up my ally! Interesting from beginning to end!

I enjoyed the book very much, it was a great story. Wish there was an inn like this, and good love story.

This is an amazing story...I couldn't put it down. A true romance. Great story of discovering ones self and finding true love. It also shows that just because two women are close friends that it doesn't mean they have to be having a sexual relationship. Real friendship at its finest.

This was an awesome story. I will definitely read it again.

I really like this story. I loved all the work to turn the house around and the hidden rooms and stairs. I could not put this down. Great Read.
