Customer Reviews

This audio book / teaching is at times absolutely laugh-out-loud funny! And it is fantastic for next step learning. I started with Paul Noble's course ("1"), thus understood sentence structure and a smattering of words and verb conjugations. Since his program stops there at about 12 hours of instruction, I was looking for next steps after also cramming on about 1000 vocabulary words. This was the perfect next step! I am reviewing it over and over and it is refreshing to understand and be able to repeat most the statements in German. There are sentences first uttered clearly and deliberately in English, and then they are repeated in German and later vice versa. The statements have a bit of flow for an entertaining narrative while you learn, a refreshing bonus. This one is a few hours of recording, while the others of the same label seem very short for the same bargain price, so I purchased this one and am thrilled. After this, I will cram more vocabulary and then continue with "immersion listening" with all the great short stories and full length novels available here. I have tried a number of other audio books as my "step 3" in my learning journey (after Paul Noble and then vocabulary study). Most recordings either speak too fast, are too short to advance learning, do not define all the words ("for x statement, utter this phrase in German"... But what were all those words and where were the word breaks?), or have too much superfluous talk on why learn German or what is the culture. I just need listening comprehension, not all the off-subject stuff. Through this audiobook I have hundreds of example sentences in my head that I fully comprehend, and will study more grammar next alongside further immersive listening. I highly recommend this after you have had some exposure to basic sentence structure and at least a few hundred to a thousand words of vocabulary. The price is a steal, enjoy the gift from these author.

as other reviewer said, this is simply the best product i have found to learn. clear concise and dense. no fluff. hit play and start learning!
