Customer Reviews

After obtaining an Honours degree in agricultural science at Oxford University, Sue Devereux qualified as a vet at Bristol University in 1983. With many years of experience as a horse owner and show jumping competitor, she moved into equine practice where she has built up a popular reputation for her thorough and dedicated approach.

What a great book!!!! I have 100s of horse books and this book has become my go to book when looking for understandable information regarding horse health issues. This book is loaded with pictures and has a few chapters dedicated to donkey care which is a bonus. I highly recommend this book to any horse owner. In addition, the price is amazingly reasonable!!!
