Customer Reviews

I enjoy Amish stories. My main complaint is that the authors including Brenda Maxfield divide what would be an average sized book into many small parts. This the second of 3 books with the same character Hilty is forced to break a promise she made to her Mam. After her Mam falls down the stairs and breaks her hip, they are forced to move into her brother's Daudi house. Hilty is worried about her bees as Winter approaches. How can she care for them, her Mam and her ill Sister at the same time?

Even when things look the darkest, God is still in control if we allow Him. He has our best interest in mind and always loves us no matter what we do.

Loved it. Great story line. Well written with good character development. Gripping plot and touch of humor.

Book was really cute and interesting. I loved the banter between the characters.

Very good book
