Customer Reviews

"Gardner's presents a narrative that runs like a thread of unity through the text." "I examined the options, and found Gardner's to be the best in giving the students the best images and the clearest discussion of both style and historical context." "What I particularly like about the Gardner is its flexibility for a variety of pedagogical/methodological/thematic approaches, which is due to the depth of its coverage of certain very pivotal figures/moments/issues in western art history."

Book is used by most art departments in their art appreciation courses and for a good reason: it succinctly covers the emergence and explosion of art from the earliest time up to the renaissance. Great explanations and definitions; the photographs are spot-on and beautifully rendered.

I don't have much to say about the book, I just purchased material as directed by scholars, I rented this from rentals, I have more to say about 's rentals, its convenient, easy to return and has very good prices, it was my first and best alternative after chegg.com which I had a very bad experience with and turned out to be more cheap!!!!

received this book, but was not the book I needed so returned and did not use.

please!!! I accidentally rented same ebooks twice ,, please!!! would you mind if I get refund one of them??

Wonderful, well written text with plenty of great images provided. Provides an excellent overview of the cultural, political, and religious contexts of the art of different time periods up to the early Renaissance. Easy to understand and greatly contributed to my understanding of early art. I highly recommend it!

A well written textbook that keeps my interest. The information is not dumbed down only explained better. The images and time lines are very helpful and really make the text come alive. Would recommend this to anyone with an interest in history as well as art.

The Gardner's Art Through the Ages books are all incredible. Very thorough and easily comprehensible. Loads of high quality color images. I'd recommend these books to anyone interested in art history.

Required college textbook!!!
