Kreisler Fritz Praeludium And Allegro - Viola And Piano - Transcribed By Alan Arnold - Viola World

Synopsis

Once presented by Fritz Kreisler as the long-lost work of Baroque composer Gaetano Pugnani, the Praeludium and Allegro (along with many other works discovered by Kreisler) was later found to be Kreisler's own original work, scandalizing many music critics of the day! Despite its dramatic history, Praeludium and Allegro (now subtitled in the style of Pugnani) is still among the best-loved works in the violin literature. Now violists can enjoy it, too! This edition has been transcribed for viola and piano by Alan Arnold. Published by Viola World Publications. Difficulty: A5

My son needed this book for New York State music test. At first the estimate time of delivery was three weeks which made us panic. But it arrived in one week.
