Customer Reviews

I kept waiting for the book to begin, and then it ended. It has links to either nowhere, or Wikipedia. The best thing about this lousy book is that it had a link to Wikipedia's list of sandwiches. I learned something from that, just not about Venice.

Really useless unless you happen to be staying at the Hotel Danielli (one of the most expensive in town). I have free apps on my phone such as Gogobot which provide much more information and allow you to customize your interests.

Good ideas for 3 short days. Sadly every Restaurant listed is pricey- but Venice is not cheap. Wish for couple suggestions of reasonable price. Otherwise nice suggestions of where to go what to go to see the basics

Very informative and helpful! This book is a great one to look at if you are interested in going to Venice at any point, or even if you are just interested in learning a bit about the area and places to go there. Definitely would recommend.

Great guide with useful itinerary for Venice. Highly recommended.
