MARY POPE OSBORNE and NATALIE POPE BOYCE are sisters who grew up on army posts all over the world. They are working on more Magic Tree House[®] Fact Tracker books to give Magic Tree House readers facts and information about places, time periods, and animals that Jack and Annie discover in the Magic Tree House adventures. Mary lives in Connecticut. Natalie makes her home nearby in the Berkshire Hills of Massachusetts. Mary is the author of all the Magic Tree House fiction titles as well as many more books for kids. SAL MURDOCCA has illustrated more than 200 children's trade and text books. He is also a librettist for children's opera, a video artist, an avid runner, hiker, and bicyclist, and a teacher of children's illustration at the Parsons School of Design. Sal lives and works in New York with his wife, Nancy.

Nice reference source for kids studying mythology unit. Simplifies what can be a difficult subject due to the language and the sheer number of Gods, Goddesses and characters. My daughter enjoyed reading it.

Gave this as a gift to my grandson. They were studying Greece and the Olympics in his classroom. He read this at home each night, and discussed with his dad what they talked about at school and what he read in this book. He really loved it.

My wife used this in her classroom, kids loved learning about this subject

The Magic Tree House Fact tracker! This book is an educational book for students. Students can be informed by how great this book is. Learning about the history of how the olympics was founded was very informative. I would recommend you putting this book in your classroom. It is awesome!

Love these books and so do my kids!

Great book for readers! Complete the book with the fiction series as well. Kids enjoy the facts! A plus in my book!

Great book for a 10 year old.

It was good because the winter Olympics were coming to Sochi. It told about the Olympics back in Greece and the gods.
