Customer Reviews

Paula Harrison began inventing stories and writing them down as a child, including one about a magical land inhabited by talking bookworms. She lives with her husband and two children in England.

My 8yo daughter emphatically does not like princesses as all they do is 'kiss boys'. So I was very surprised when she came home from the book fair with one of these saying she wanted to read more of them. From what I gather, as I haven't had a chance to read them for myself, is each princess has an animal that they rescue. Quote from my daughter, 'they all have a sense of adventure and don't kiss boys'. So, yeah, I would absolutely recommend them.

Put little princesses together with baby animals, and what do you have? A recipe for reading! My 7-year-old daughter loved this series. She read all of them in two days! I'll copy this review to the other books we bought here in this series.

I have been reading this series aloud to my 5 year old daughter. Shes loves them. Yes, they are predictable, and a little silly. At the same time they have helped my daughter appreciate novels, and not only picture books. We have enjoyed the stories together and she always is very curious to find out what happens next. I would recommend them as a good read aloud for young girls.

Juanita is clever, kind, loving, and also a great craftsman. She has wonderful potential and a good heart that helps her make hard decisions. She's an awesome princess! :-)

This was an interesting one in the series as it wasn't as focused on saving the panda as it was on finding the stolen crystals, but my daughter loves jewels just the same. Great series.

My daughter who is 7 loves this book series! She read the whole book in one day! Now she wants to get to the next one

My daughter cannot get enough of these books! She is 7 years old and in 1st grade. I am amazed at how she will read and read when she gets her hands on this series. Very cute series!
