Customer Reviews

Tim O'Brien is a veteran news reporter and editor who now travels the world's highways for a living as senior editor for Amusement Business Newsweekly.

I wanted to use this book to plan some interesting stops along and off of I-40. However, there are minimal maps and unless you look up every single town in each division of Tennessee, you have no idea if they are anywhere near I-40 or not. When I have purchased from the "Off the Beaten Path" guides in the past, they had maps with the places discussed marked at least in some way. I frankly don't know how you would much use this book to plan a trip across Tennessee. It would only be helpful if you lived there and wanted to explore around a segment of the state.
