Customer Reviews

If you're buying this, you probably already know what you're getting. It's a fold-out map book of the whole state. I'm keeping it as a back-up in case my GPS stops working. Keep in mind this is the 2009 version, so (as of Mar 2015) it's 6 years outdated. Most roads do not change too quickly, but if you will be travelling in a transitional area, just keep that in mind.

Rand McNally has been around forever and does, for the most part, a nice job. I'm still confounded by the lesser roads that they choose to show or not show. As far as major highways, rivers, mountains, etc., they're great and will always get you to at least ballpark where a better local map can usually be found. They've always been my go-to map when planning a trip.

It's not bad. I got a better map from the Montana Department of Transportation. However, this map is a little easier to use when driving because IT'S NOT HUGE. The other map - if it was made from cloth - could be used as a small bed sheet. So, I give it 4 stars. It's just fine for the job.

I used this on a recent motorcycle trip through the southwest. Good map, easy to read and accurate description of the type of road.

Possibly the worst Rand McNally map I've purchased. Possibly it's because Alaska is so large, but for the most part, only major roads are shown. Very disappointing as it's the minor roads I need maps for...

Good map....worked fine on our trip....

I have always trusted Rand McNally maps and this is no exception. I am very pleased with my purchase and I will definitely buy from this seller again.

We had a lot of fun exploring Wyoming and the southern part of Montana and this map was very helpful. Highly recommended
