Drawing Kit

My 10 year old son just looooved to be able to design his own motorcycle and draw it himself! He is only a beginner drawer, and this was easy enough for him. It made him feel really talented!

Good product, except the light doesn't last that long. Overall though, my son, loved playing with it along with the car design we bought for him.

There have always been fashion design studio toys for little girls and it's so great to find an art design kit for boys. So much fun!
