Simply, the best! At the opposite end of the spectrum from The New York Times Toughest Crosswords is this new volume of fifty puzzles, which originally appeared in Monday editions of The Times. These beginner-level crosswords are of the same high quality as our other Will Shortz puzzle books, but they can be enjoyed by everyone from novices to experts. The New York Times Easiest Crossword Puzzles is an easy book to love. --This text refers to an out of print or unavailable edition of this title.

Fun! Not too easy.. just right for my level. Some are more challenging than others, but that's what makes it addictive.

Difficulty level is about the same as any old crossword puzzle from Walmart, which for me is not that easy. Plus, the crosswords are tiny, and it's difficult to keep the book flat due to the binding.

Still a challenge, but doable!

I love the puzzles challenging but doable the only thing I don't like is the format of the book I like a book that lays flat terrific -- the puzzles are fun for the late evening hours.

Finally puzzles that challenge me, not frustrate me.

The construction of this booklet was super. It was easy to work on a puzzle without having to keep holding down the page. I do the crossword puzzle in my local newspaper (East Liverpool Review) everyday but I am not a pro. I am a little dyslectic . The puzzles in this book where not as hard as the ones in my newspaper.

Great puzzles.
