I'm liking this desk calendar. I always have a stand-up calendar on my desk and I prefer those with positive, upbeat messages. In the past, I've usually gotten the "Life's Little Instructions" calendar; however, I saw this colorful calendar and decided to try it. If you're into great colors and positive messages, this calendar is for you. It's well worth the money (if around $10 or so). It's bigger than prior years' calendars I've had. In comparison, the 2016 Life's Little Instructions calendar is 4 1/2" x

So disappointed this year! The illustrations are better than last years; however, Workman Publishing placed the "bubble" with their own reminders about signing up for things on their site so it bleeds into the graphics this year. Last year these were only below the line where the date was written out so you can remove that portion if you wanted to pin the graphic to your wall. The main selling point of their calendar, which is listed on the front of the box, is "365 day of word to inspire and art to keep." It bothers me that they have now ruined several pages of the art.

The 2017 illustrations are really nice, better than 2016 in my opinion.

I had the 2016 calendar and have enjoyed it so much, I had to have the 2017. I also got one for my sister as a gift, so she can enjoy it every day, too.

Favorite Calendar EVER!!! love love love love love this calendar. A friend had it last year and recommended it to me. I bought it thinking, okay just another calendar to have. No, I was wrong. I actually look forward to seeing what inspirational message will be there today! The artwork is also amazing!

VERY nice calendar. I can't wait to start using it. Would make a great gift for anyone. I like that it's simple and colorful.

I LOVE this Page-a-Day Calendar. I bought one last year and laughed as each day seemed to know where my head was at. I called it my 'Fortune Calendar'. Ordered one for 2017 and I have to laugh when I have a bad day and I tear off yesterdays 'fortune' to find it read: Chin up, Kiddo-It'll all be Okay! or one day after a particularly difficult workout it read "Progress not Perfection". I like the positive daily messages and artsy fartsy pix. Brightens my day..any day!

Some of the pages in this calendar are great! I like the art work on most of them. However, some of the sayings are just so saccharine that they feel patronizing. I like it though and will probably by the 2018 version when it is available.
