A Paris Year: My Day-to-Day Adventures In The Most Romantic City In The World

Synopsis

Part memoir and part visual journey through the streets of modern-day Paris, France, A Paris Year chronicles, day by day, one woman's French sojourn in the world's most beautiful city. Beginning on her first day in Paris, Janice MacLeod, the author of the best-selling book, Paris Letters, began a journal recording in illustrations and words, nearly every sight, smell, taste, and thought she experienced in the City of Light. The end result is more than a diary: it's a detailed and colorful love letter to one of the most romantic and historically rich cities on earth. Combining personal observations and anecdotes with stories and facts about famous figures in Parisian history, this visual tale of discovery, through the eyes of an artist, is sure to delight, inspire, and charm.

Customer Reviews

"I thought there'd be no way she could outdo herself, but I was so wrong!... it's the type of book you beg and plead and hope will never end." • Susan Blumberg-Kason, author of Good Chinese Wife "[A] lovely portrayal of the romantic city... [Janice MacLeod] has a great eye for the city's beauty, capturing those precious moments that locals probably take for granted (and that an outsider never does)." • Cheryl Yanek, Library Journal "Part Paris guidebook/part memoir/part visual candy store. As much a treat for the eyes as for the soul. A Paris Year is a must for anyone who loves Paris." • Lisa Anselmo, author of My (Part-Time) Paris Life: How Running Away Brought Me Home "With whimsical illustrations, captivating photographs, and a diary-format that hooks you from the start, Janice's journey of a year in Paris is downright magical. A wonderful read!" • Lindsey

Tramuta, journalist and author of The New Paris "Through art, photography, and a wonderful voice that shines right off the pages, MacLeod takes the reader on a creative journey straight into the heart of the City of Lights. Warm, spirited, and inviting, A Paris Year is the kind of beautiful book you want to hug against your chest." — Samantha VÃ©rant, author of Seven Letters from Paris and How to Make a French Family

JANICE MACLEOD, the illustrator and author of the New York Times best-selling book Paris Letters, was born in Canada and worked in advertising for many years until she decided to slip away from corporate drudgery and spend time abroad. During her time in Paris, she painted letters about her travels and mailed them to friends, who encouraged her to sell the personalized illustrated letters on Etsy. Since then, MacLeod has sent out thousands of letters to fans worldwide.

Exquisite, moving, captivating, this account of Janice MacLeod's year in Paris cannot fail to amuse, enlighten, delight and stir your emotions. You must get the hardcover to fully revel in her lovely artwork. I have both the hardcover and the Kindle version, and I'm afraid this one deserves to be consumed as a real book -- keep it on your coffee table and thumb through it at random. It's a literary box of chocolates.

When my preordered copy of this book arrived, I took one look and immediately ordered another to give as a gift. This is one of the most beautiful books I've ever seen. Janice's artwork, photographs and design make it absolutely perfect. Her day to day observations and experiences are fun to read and there are travel tidbits that may be useful if you're traveling to Paris. It's a book I'm sure I'll read more than once. Every time I open it, it takes me back to Paris for a few minutes. Truly a must-have for anyone who loves Paris, but also for those who just love beautiful books.

Loved this book. I didn't expect it to read as a journal, but it was delightful. It brought back many memories of my own time in Paris and with the French culture. Loved it! The photos and drawings in the book were a mesmerizing touch to the overall book.

Love this book. It is full of sketches and photos of Paris. Will spend many happy hours reading it.

Beautiful book. Love the whole design of it visually and the commentary is perfect. I've been to Paris many times and this book/diary was very enjoyable.

I love Paris and this book helps me relive those days when I was there. I have read her other books and enjoyed them. I love the pictures and the blog about them. I scrapbook and think I, too, might do the same in my books.

Each page is a wonderful peek into Paris. What a relaxing way to spend a few hours. I recommend as a gift to anyone that longs for Paris.

Thank you for taking me back to the sights & sounds & smells of Paris. I was enchanted all over again.
