A Life For God: A Rabbi's Analysis Of The Cross, Life, And Eternity

Synopsis

If anyone wants to come after me, let him say No to himself, take up his execution-stake daily and keep following me. - Yeshua To grasp the depth and height of the great I AM and to live life with the end (eternity) in sight is a believer's most significant accomplishment. Within each of His chosen people, God has placed a desire to know him, to worship him, and to live victoriously for him. He has shown us how to have the right perspective concerning this life and the one to come. And what God starts, he finishes. Come, let Messianic Rabbi Greg Hershberg open the Torah and give you glimpses of the incredible love and character of our God. Let him point you to the Savior through the offerings of Leviticus and the mournful lament of Psalm 22. Let him guide you through the greatest commandment as you learn to say "no" to yourself, pick up your execution-stake, and follow the great I AM.

Until one really understands the sacrifices in the Torah it is difficult to understand what the death of Yeshua really means. This book is very clear in this teaching and offers those who do not realize the holiness and depth of G-d a deeper insight to His kingdom. To merely say "G-d is good. G-d is holy" does not scratch the surface but this book gives you a much deeper meaning and encourages one to continue the dig. What a blessing is this teaching. I feel this book is so informative that I bought 4 hard copies to share.

This is plea for a faith made manifest in a Life of devotion to God. It is a Messianic Jew whose childhood in an Orthodox family did not inoculate him against the whirl of the worldly life. Like Abraham Greg Hershberg was called an responded “Hinneini” here I am. While honeymooning in Israel this JINO (Jew in Name Only) had a life-changing experience. The Messiah Yeshua called to him. The energy he had thrown into his typically neo-pagan, baby-boomer-generation life-style was suddenly like a powerful river imprisoned by a dam. Hershberg

Great book to go along with great teaching. Rabbi is God gifted and spot on with his teaching. I wish everyone could sit under his teaching.

Rabbi Hershberg is a favorite. I Watch his live stream weekly. The book is excellent. He is an excellent teacher -- open, straight forward and honest.

My wife is really enjoying reading this book about a very Godly man whom God is using mightily.

Should be read by anyone that desires truth.

A superb book from my rabbi

Rabbi's books are written just how he talks: raw. real. honest.
