Customer Reviews

Exactly as I had hoped. Thank you

Good background and practical information. I would have appreciated better use of subheadings and links to allow easier navigation within the chapters though. I needed to skip through a lot of pages to find accommodation info when interfacing with the Ubud map for instance.

Maps were really helpful

For every travel destination, I always want to know - which should I buy, the Rough Guide or the Lonely Planet or what? I rarely find the answers in the reviews on . So here you go. This is the one to get. I took both guides to Bali with me. Though the LP has the clearer format, the RG definitely had more detailed information and it is the one I ended up carrying in my bag. The LP stayed in the hotel.

Very detailed about areas, Very repetitive between the sections, but no overview or list of things to do, I like how Rick Steve's lays out his European guide books much better.
