Tiny Treasure (Eternal Flames Maddox Book 4)

Synopsis

Timmy, a shy little gargoyle, has always felt like he isn't good enough. Wherever Timmy goes, disaster is sure to follow and his fellow gargoyle always pay the price. But one day, Timmy makes a big mistake by accidentally taking his king's crown. So, Timmy runs away, afraid that his chimera will no longer want him. He also knows he must get the crown back to his King. So, Timmy hides it somewhere only he knows, but believes his king will find it. Then Timmy makes the ultimate mistake of using his powers accidentally against his mate upon meeting him, turning York, the dragon shifter, into a stone statue. As Timmy grieves over harming his mate, the men of Crystal and Maddox need to come together to not only save York, but also themselves. Fallon, their biggest enemy, knows that the gargoyle king's crown is hidden in Crystal, and if he can find it before they do, he will use it to destroy them all.

Customer Reviews

I think this book is one of my favorites in the series so far. I absolutely loved Timmy and York was wonderful too as his mate. The beginning of the story bothered me a little. I didn't really understand why they didn't do the obvious to control Timmy's powers. However, once that whole scenario played out I really enjoyed the remainder of the story. I always like a series where we continue to see the interactions between all the characters from previous installments. This one actually made me appreciate Illan more as a character. I haven't really liked him throughout the series, but the author actually made me sympathize with him more. I enjoyed much of the humor throughout the story, but Jett and Ollie did start to get on my nerves especially toward the end. If you have been a fan of the series, I highly recommend this book. As usual, it ends with many dangling plot points, but that is to be expected in an ongoing series. I am really looking forward to the next book.

I love this series and it's sister series. Well written story line with well developed characters. Can't wait until the next book comes out.

This story is best enjoyed if read in order of the series. I absolutely adored Timmy and was so glad to see his happy ending.
