Silence In Center (Softball Star) (Volume 5)

Synopsis

Silence in Center is part of the Softball Star series, inspiring sports books for preteens about girls who love playing softball and baseball. 14-year-old Melody Gold is a fastpitch player who wants to make the move from Little League to Select Ball. But no coach wants her on the team because she has a hearing impairment and must wear hearing aids at all times, even during outdoor games. Unwilling to take no for an answer, Melody is determined to be successful by overcoming disability and proving she can compete at the highest level. All books in the Softball Star series are standalone stories that can be read in any order, suitable for ages 12 and up.

Customer Reviews

"A heartwarming addition to the Softball Star series. Young readers who love inspirational sports stories will like this book. Those who enjoy softball will cheer for Silence in Center. Parents will appreciate how the author handles subject matters with honesty, but minus the cheap tricks to keep young readers engaged. An uplifting and relatable story that will win over many young sports enthusiasts." Self-Publishing Review, 4 Stars"Ultimately, I would give Silence in Center by Jody Studdard 3 out of 4 stars. It is a sound story with a great message for young readers." Online Book Club
